FINANCES

Following on from the parish of Conwal and Leck's financial report and in recognition of the positive feedback for the work that is planned, we have included a CHY3 form with this newsletter. If you pay a church envelope and are a PAYE worker or self employed then you are encouraged to sign the enclosed form and return it to the parochial house or to the Cathedral sacristy. Other ways of contributing to the parish is through direct debit or standing order. Details are available from the parochial house

YESTERDAY

Jesus, let me tell you about yesterday.

I saw the Cross and I ignored it.
I noticed my sister's wounds and walked on.

I looked upon my brother's pain and pretended that it was not that bad.
I heard a child crying and told myself to mind my own business.

I bumped into a woman starved of love and refused to help.
I beheld the emptiness in an old man's eyes and rushed about my work.

I became aware of my inner screams and then got busier than before.
I watched my crumbling willpower fail and made no effort to try.

That was yesterday.
Today is new.

Thank you Lord for yesterday.
Thank you Lord for today.
Amen.

Do not fear. Jesus is more powerful than all hell. At the invocation of His Name every knee in heaven, on earth and in hell must bend before Jesus; this is the consolation for the good and terror of the evil. Padre Pio

“Give yourself to God. He will use you to accomplish great things on the condition that you believe much more in his love than in your own weakness.”
