ST. EUNAN'S CATHEDRAL LETTERKENNY NEWSLETTER

Sunday 16th June 2024
Eleventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

THANK YOU

A word of thanks and acknowledgement is necessary for all involved with Sunday's Ordination in the Cathedral. Firstly, we thank Bishop Alan McGuckian for accepting our invitation to return to the Diocese of Raphoe to officiate at the Ordination; to our Sacristans who prepared everything for the Mass, the Cathedral cleaning team who made sure the Cathedral was spotless to welcome our guests; the Floral Society for the beautiful flowers in the Sanctuary and High Altar; all who took part in the liturgy—readers, prayers of the faithful, the offertory; the massed choirs of the Diocese under the direction of Fr. Michael Carney, Gabrielle Fitzsimons and Una Marie O'Donnell. To Mary Maguire and her team of volunteers and bakers, a huge word of thanks for all the preparation for the refreshments after the Ordination. The Knights of Columbanus for your stewarding in the Cathedral, along the route to Trinity Hall, who put up the Flags outside the Cathedral. Sincere thanks to the Trinity Hall Committee. We really appreciate your generosity in welcoming us when we ask for the use of the Hall. Our prayer is that Father Anthony will have a very happy and fruitful priestly ministry.

Father Anthony will be appointed as curate here at St. Eunan's Cathedral, with effect from 1st July. We look forward to welcoming him to our parish and to walking these first steps with him in his ministry. We wish him "ad multos annos": many years of ministry.
